

Reflection Worksheet

What will your child/ren be able to do in Latin someday?

Write down your boldest dream, and make it as specific as possible. Name texts or skills, attitudes, and applications. If you find it helpful, paint a word picture of a single moment: e.g. he is sitting on the couch with a glass of lemonade, and he puts down the book of Cicero's speeches and begins to declaim... (!)

What do you think is your next step?

What would you like to achieve by the end of the 2020-2021 school year?

Which of these four elements do you most need to focus on:

1. Consistency & structure
2. Time & easy materials for fluency
3. Inspiring words from living books
4. Being/Finding a rolemodel

Did anything strike you in what Charlotte Mason wrote about Latin?

What could you use help with, and how might you find that help?
